SCHOOL PROFILE

The Village School is located in sunny Houston, Texas, just 20 minutes from the city's downtown area. The school offers the International Baccalaureate Diploma, an optional entrepreneurship diploma, a fine arts program collaboration with the Juilliard School, and a comprehensive STEAM program in collaboration with MIT; students in the program visit MIT annually.

FACILITIES

The Village School is situated on 28 acres in West Houston. The campus has athletic facilities that include a turf field for football, soccer and lacrosse, a competition track, and tennis courts that are some of the best in the nation. Brand new facilities include an aquatic center, an additional athletic center, a weight room and a dormitory.

SPORTS AND ARTS

The Village School's competitive sports teams include options such as American football, golf, and lacrosse.

In collaboration with The Juilliard School, the fine arts program's unique curriculum prepares students for higher education in the arts.

DORMITORIES AND STUDENT LIFE

Boarding students live in brand new on-campus dormitories with four-bedroom suites and study areas. The school is known for its annual class trips, including a freshman retreat, a service-focused, cultural and educational trip sophomore year, an IB-focused science trip junior year, and a senior retreat.
